

THE NUCLEARS

ABOUT

The Nuclears are a twin-guitar party rock 'n' roll band based out of Brooklyn, New York. They are currently signed to Fake Chapter Records, who released the band's 2019 LP 'Barrage Rock'. This effort showcased and tied together The Nuclears' sonic range: from high-energy protopunk, to 70's glitter rock, to Kinks-ian power pop, to riff-driven heavy metal. The opening track 'Back to My Girl' was featured as the Coolest Song In The World by SiriusXM Channel 21, the Underground Garage and received international radio play.

Photo by Nate Igor Smith

The Nukes were formed in the suburbs of Washington D.C. in the mid-2000's by high school friends Brian Dudolevitch (vocals/guitar) and Bobby Sproles (bass guitar), along with Brian's younger brother, Mike (guitar, vocals). They made waves in the DC rock 'n' roll scene when they were named Best Garage Rock Band by Little Steven's Underground Garage, only to have the title stripped away when it was found out they were too young to be eligible. Nevertheless it earned them a deal with District Records, with whom the band would release their first recording, 'Meet the Nuclears.' Afterwards, The Nukes relocated to Brooklyn where they rounded out their lineup with Kevin Blatchford (drums) and Briana Layon (vocal/percussion/guitar). The band

www.thenuclears.nyc

THE NUCLEARS

has toured the United States extensively in support of their 3 albums: 'The Nuclears,' 'This Is How We Party' and 'Record High'.

PRESS

"Party punk rock'n'roll with a dose of irony. "Record High" or "Rekall" bring the best of '00s rock'n'roll to mind, while "One Day you Might" is a fun BEATLES style song that will make you smile. These guys also bring BLACK SABBATH's spirit back to life in "Eclipso II: Black Atom," and will make you dance with the 70s rock'n'roll influenced "Afterparty."

- Veglam.com

"I'm downstairs doing the pinball rock and I can hear this total whiskey-drinking, shit-kicking rock and roll, so I head up top to check it out- holy fuck, it's The Nuclears, this shit's coming outta those long-haired kids I just met a minute ago. The dude's singin' about "Baby, baby, baby, don't do me like that." Bad ass. And their guitar player, Eddie Van Halen protégé, God, the kid must practice like twenty-three hours a day."

- Mike Watt (The Minutemen, The Stooges)

"...from a local, heavy super-boogie band I'd never met before, The Nuclears from Brooklyn. I hope we meet again soon."

- David Fricke, Rolling Stone

www.thenuclears.nyc

THE NUCLEARS

MUSIC & VIDEOS

Click Icons for Private Links

Photo by Johan Vipper

www.thenuclears.nyc

THE NUCLEARS

CONTACT

Booking: MikeDudolevitch@gmail.com

Label: Fake Chapter Records

Website: www.thenuclears.nyc

Social: @thenuclears

www.thenuclears.nyc

THE NUCLEARS

THE NUCLEARS STAGE PLOT 2018

For Questions: email mikedudolevitch@gmail.com

www.thenuclears.nyc

2nd Lead Vocal Mic Lead Vocal Mic Backups Vocal Mic

 Please have light slapback on all vocal mics.